

Joseph Berarducci Piano

Degrees and Studies:

Joseph Berarducci holds a Master of Arts in Music from Western Washington University and a Bachelor of Music from the University of British Columbia.

Biographical Information:

Mr. Berarducci has been involved with Carl Orff Canada for over twenty years having served as president of the B.C. Chapter and the National organization, as well as presenting at several of the National Orff Conferences in Canada and in the United States. In addition he has presented workshops in B.C., Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and in the United States. He has worked for the University of B.C., Simon Fraser University, Seattle Pacific University, Chapman University, University of Victoria, University of Lethbridge, Capilano College, Douglas College and School District #44 in North Vancouver B.C. Mr. Berarducci has also worked for the Ministry of Education in B.C. preparing the new Fine Arts Curriculum and chaired the implementation committee for North Vancouver for 2 years, as well as represented North Vancouver on the Metro Fine Arts Committee. In addition, he has adjudicated music festivals throughout B.C. in piano, voice and choral ensembles. He was honored as Professional Teacher of the Year by the North Vancouver Music Educators and in 1993 was also honored by the B.C. Music Educators Association. Mr. Berarducci currently teaches piano, theory and harmony in Kelowna, B.C. at the Community Music School. He developed the Musical Storytime program for the Pacific Symphony in Costa Mesa California and presented three seasons of concerts.

