

Lorna Cameron-Price

Piano

Lorna Cameron-Price holds a Bachelor of Music from Dalhousie University where she studied with Lynn Stodola. She continued her studies at the University of Western Ontario with Ronald Turini.

Ms. Cameron has won numerous awards and scholarships and performed as soloist with orchestras in Ontario and Nova Scotia. She enjoys accompanying chamber musicians and recently recorded Vaughan Williams' Songs of Travel and Gerald Finzi's Let Us Garlands Bring. Currently, she teaches piano, theory, and pedagogy at the Académie Ste-Cécile in Windsor, Ontario, and is a member of the Académie Ste-Cécile Trio.