

Dennis Chan

Theory

Dennis Chan holds two conducting degrees: a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Cornish College of the Arts, Seattle; and a Master in Music from University of Washington. He also holds ATCL Diplomas in both violin and voice. Mr. Chan studied conducting with Prof. Stanley Cheng (Baptist University, HK), Dr. Byron McGilvray (SFU), Dr. James Savage (Cornish College), Dr. Abraham Kaplan (UW); violin with former Kronos Quartet member Mrs. Ella Gray. He also studied music theory under the tutelage of famous American composer Janice Giteck in lineage of Darius Milhaud and Olivier Messiaen. Mr. Chan has years of experience in conducting church choirs, orchestras; and teaching violin in HK, USA and Canada. Currently Mr. Chan operates and teaches in Via Musica Studio in Mississauga and Richmond Hill area.