

Penelope Dale

Voice

Penelope Dale holds a diplôme d'études supérieures, and a concours à l'unanimité du jury in vocal performance from the Conservatoire de Musique du Québec à Montréal, as well as a Diploma in Education (Music Specialist) from McGill University. Her principal voice teacher was Madame Marie Daveluy of Montréal, Québec.

Ms. Dale has performed as a soloist in live performances for Radio Canada, in opera and in concert. She is currently a faculty member of The Royal Conservatory of Music where she teaches voice and sight singing. Ms. Dale was a compiler of The Royal Conservatory of Music Voice Syllabus, 2005 Edition, and the Voice Repertoire Series, Third Edition.

Ms. Dale has received many awards, including first prize at the CIBC National Music Festival. She is a member of several professional organizations, including the Canadian Music Festival Adjudicators' Association, the National Association of Teachers of Singing, and the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association.