

Maria Dolnycky

Piano

Degrees and Studies:

Maria Dolnycky holds a Master of Music degree from McGill University in Montreal and a performance diploma from the University for Music and Performing Arts in Vienna. Her principal mentors have been Ljerka Wollmarker-Blume and Walter Fleischmann.

Biographical Information:

Maria Dolnycky is the winner of the Debut Young Concert Artists Series competition and her recitals have been broadcast on CBC Radio, Music from Montreal, and Radio-Canada Jeunes Artistes. Maria maintains a busy teaching studio in Toronto and appears regularly as soloist, chamber musician, and collaborative artist. Her CD recordings include Poetic Moods featuring seven 20th century composers from Ukraine and Lullaby for a Snowy Night. A fascination with visual arts has led her to the launch of Music on Canvas, a dynamic concert series in Toronto which aims to present unique conceptual programs, occasionally blending live music with artwork and other media.

