

Barbara Eriksson Piano

Degrees and Studies:

Barbara Eriksson holds an Associate Diploma from the Trinity College of Music, London, England, and a Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance with Great Distinction from the University of Saskatchewan. She has worked with teachers who include Robin Harrison, Mark Westcott, Bela Siki, Gwen Beamish and Bonnie Nicholson and has won scholarships including the Dorothy Bea Scholarship and the Florence Bowes Scholarship for Piano Pedagogy.

Biographical Information:

Ms. Eriksson works as a collaborative pianist and vocal coach and she has served as an official accompanist for the National Music Festival. She has extensive experience as a choral musician, music festival adjudicator and she has been a guest clinician for numerous workshops, lectures and master classes. As well, Ms. Eriksson shares her enthusiasm for music within a busy private music studio where she works with students of all levels. She is a member of the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers, Alberta Registered Music Teachers Association (Edmonton Branch), Alberta Piano Teachers Association and the Canadian Music Festival Adjudicators Association. In addition, Ms. Eriksson has studied voice and enjoys performing as a vocal soloist.

