

Mary Fisher

Strings

Mary Fisher studied cello performance at the University of Manitoba. Some of her teachers include Tanya Carey, Irene Sharp, and Hans Jorgen Jensen. She is the founding member of the Fisher Quartet and has performed with Chamber Music Etobicoke, The Northern Sinfonia and the Symphony New Brunswick as well as being an active freelance musician. Ms. Fisher is the co-founder of the Toronto School of Strings and has taught Suzuki and traditional cello since 1981.