

Lynne Hensbergen Theory

---

Degrees and Studies:

Lynne Hensbergen holds an ARCT in Composition from The Royal Conservatory of Music. She studied both piano and theory at The Royal Conservatory of Music with Dr. Roman Toi and Dr. J. A. Dawson. After completing her ARCT she continued her studies in composition with Dr. Alexander Rapoport.

Biographical Information:

Ms. Hensbergen is a busy teacher, composer and performer in Toronto. She owns a private music school in Scarborough, Ontario, where she employs four instructors and teaches all levels of piano and theory. Her compositions include works for piano, voice, trumpet, choir and several arrangements for small wind and string instrumental groups.

Ms. Hensbergen is currently the director a 35-member choir and the organist for two choirs. She has adjudicated several piano and organ festivals in Toronto and Hamilton, Ontario, and has been a member of the RCM Examinations College of Examiners since 1992.

