

Judith Lebane-Kane

Voice

Judith Lebane-Kane holds an Artist Licentiate diploma from the University of Toronto Opera School and has studied with well-known teachers including Irene Jessner, Greta Kraus, Ernesto Barbini and Geiger Torel. Ms. Lebane-Kane has had an extensive performing career singing in concert for CBC Radio and Television and with major Canadian opera companies. She has performed her one-woman show Stories and Songs of A.A. Milne throughout Canada. Ms. Lebane-Kane has also adjudicated for numerous festivals and has held teaching positions at Mount Royal College and with the Calgary Board of Continuing Education. Currently, Ms. Lebane-Kane is a member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association and the Association of Television and Radio Actors Equity, and maintains a busy private music studio.