Strings

Amy Levinson holds an ARCT Diploma in Violin Performance from The Royal Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Music from the University of British Columbia. Currently, she is director of the Amati Violin Studio where she teaches more than fifty private students. Ms. Levinson also coaches chamber groups and school orchestras and co-ordinates the Sizzlers Fiddle Group.

As a teacher, Ms. Levinson specializes in early violin education through a combined approach using both Suzuki and traditional methods. She has a particular interest in Canadian violin works for beginner and intermediate violinists and violists and is a co-producer of the Collage Canadian Music Festival, a non-competitive event that promotes Canadian compositions at all levels. She also performs for a number of private and social functions as a member of the Champagne Trio.
