

Lynda Metelsky Piano

Degrees and Studies:

Lynda Metelsky holds a Bachelor of Music in Performance from the University of Toronto and a Masters in Performance from the University of Hartford where she studied with Pierre Souvairan, Luiz de Moura Castro and Karl Ulrich Schnabel.

Biographical Information:

Ms. Metelsky is on the piano faculties at both the University of Toronto and The Royal Conservatory of Music where she is Coordinator of the Teaching Internship Program and the former Piano Department Head at The Glenn Gould School. She is also a member of the faculty at the International Institute for Young Musicians, an annual summer performance program at Kansas University.

Ms. Metelsky has conducted master classes throughout Canada and the United States and at the Mannheim School in Germany. She regularly adjudicates and gives workshops across North America and is a clinician for The Frederick Harris Music Co., Limited. She has also been a presenter at MTNA and CFMTA Conventions in the USA and Canada.

Ms. Metelsky was an author, recording consultant and repertoire contributor for the Celebration Series® and New Piano Series piano repertoire albums, while playing a prominent role in the shaping of the vision and content of Celebration Series®, The Piano Odyssey® Student Workbooks.

