

Anne Marie Page

Piano

Anne Marie Page holds an Honours Bachelor of Piano Performance and a Bachelor of Education in Vocal Music from the University of Western Ontario, and she is an Associate of the Royal College of Canadian Organists. As a performer, she has been heard on television and radio broadcasts for CBC, ABC, and BBC, and she has conducted and performed in the United Kingdom, Europe, and North America.

Her numerous CD recordings include choral, solo, and chamber music, as well as recordings with the Page Two Trumpet and Organ Duo. At the Stratford Festival of Canada she has appeared as an accompanist and keyboardist in seven productions. Ms Page also composed music for a CD dramatization of Ben Johnson's Volpone and both wrote and directed The Jester's Music, a production sponsored by Yamaha Canada. She is active as an adjudicator for a variety of Young Artist and Kiwanis competitions.
