

Ella Poret

Piano

Ella Poret began her music studies with Boris Berlin at the Royal Conservatory of Music followed by a degree in Piano Performance from University of Toronto where she studied with Patricia Parr and Marina Geringas. She has received numerous awards and scholarships in both piano and composition and released recordings of her own original music. She has performed throughout Ontario and the United states and was a winner of the Contemporary Music showcase in Los Angeles and New York.

Ms. Poret maintains a highly recognized teaching studio in Toronto where her students range from beginners to ARCT levels. She teaches piano, music theory and pedagogy.

Ms. Poret has adjudicated for many music festivals, such as the Barrie Kiwanis Music Festival, the Kitchener-Waterloo Kiwanis Music Festival, the Arts Richmond Hill Music Festival, the Windsor Music Festival and others. She is the author of “Piano World”, a method book for beginners and conducts workshops based on this progressive method of piano teaching.
