

Wendy Ann Potter

Piano

Wendy Ann Potter holds a Bachelor in Piano Performance from the University of Western Ontario, and a Master in Piano Pedagogy and Performance from the University of Michigan. She has received numerous scholarships and awards in both teaching and performing, including the Alice B. Kern excellence in teaching award, and the UWO Gold Medal. In 1997-98, she was Visiting Lecturer in Piano Pedagogy at the University of Michigan. During this time, she was also Co-ordinator of the All-State Piano Program at the Interlochen Centre for the Arts.

Ms. Potter has given numerous workshops and convention presentations throughout the United States, and continues to be active as an adjudicator and clinician while maintaining a private teaching studio in Toronto.