

Carolyn Pratt Theory

Degrees and Studies:

Carolyn Pratt holds an ARCT Teacher's Diploma in Piano and a Grade 8 certificate in cello from The Royal Conservatory of Music. Her primary piano teachers were Eileen Stewart, Helen Thrasher, Dr. Charles Heffernan, and Dr. Lee Willingham. For theory, she studied with Diane Pendock, and through summer school courses at The Royal Conservatory of Music. Her Cello teachers included Elaine Sargous, Harold Clarkson, Jose Shapiro, Peter Wiebe and Ben Bolt-Martin.

Biographical Information:

Ms. Pratt has extensive experience as a piano, cello, and theory instructor and performer. She was the accompanist for the Georgian Bay Concert Choir in Owen Sound and enjoys working as an accompanist for students performing in festivals, recitals, and examinations. She also plays cello with the Waterloo Chamber Players and the Kitchener-Waterloo Community Orchestra. In previous years, Ms. Pratt was a member of the Scarborough Symphony, Fredericton Chamber Orchestra, Saint John Symphony, Windsor Community Orchestra, Georgian Bay Symphony, and Aeolian Strings.

Ms. Pratt moved to Waterloo in 2004. She taught at the Waterloo Music Academy until June 2010. In September she will begin teaching at Sound Factory Music School in Waterloo. She is a member of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association (ORMTA).

