

Susan Robinson

Piano

Susan Robinson holds ARCT and Licentiate Diplomas from The Royal Conservatory of Music, a Bachelor of Music Degree from the University of Toronto, and Fellowship and Licentiate Diplomas from Trinity College of Music, London, England. Her performance career includes solo recitals, and several appearances with the Georgian Bay Symphony. She is also active as an accompanist, and was guest artist for the 1985 Blue Mountain Festival of the Arts.

Ms. Robinson was a faculty member of The Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto from 1992-1999 and currently runs a busy private music studio in Kitchener, Ontario. Ms. Robinson co-founded the Guelph branch of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association and currently is an executive member of the Kitchener-Waterloo Branch. She is also active as an adjudicator.