

Sally Rowsell

Piano

Sally Rowsell holds a Bachelor of Music and a Bachelor of Music Education from the Memorial University of Newfoundland, and a Master of Music in Performance and Literature from Brandon University in Manitoba. She also studied performance at the Guildhall School of Music and the City University, London, England, and pedagogy at The University of South Carolina. She has attended master-classes with Anton Kuerti, Anton Kubalek, Kendall Taylor, and Jon Kimura Parker.

As well as adjudicating frequently, Ms. Rowsell serves as music critic for The St. John's Evening Telegram. She has performed across Canada, on CBC radio and television broadcasts, and has freelanced extensively as an accompanist. She has served as convener for Canada Music week, and president of the Newfoundland Registered Music Teachers' Association. Currently, Ms. Rowsell maintains a busy piano studio in St. John's and is currently provincial affiliate for The Canadian Music Festival Adjudicator's Association in Newfoundland.
