

Lilian Schmunk

Piano

Lilian Schmunk holds a Licentiate Diploma in Piano Performance from the Royal Schools of Music, London, England. In New Zealand, where she began her musical education she was a recipient of numerous awards in solo piano performance as well as an active accompanist in church choir music. Since immigrating to Canada she furthered her studies with Helen Silvester and Edward Parker and has been actively involved in the British Columbia Music Teachers' Association. She currently maintains a private piano studio together with her son and daughter and also serves as an adjudicator and workshop clinician.