

Michael Schuett

Woodwinds

Michael Schuett holds a Bachelor of Music from Wilfrid Laurier University and a Master of Music from the University of Calgary. He has studied with George Gabor and Michael Udow at the Banff Centre where he was awarded a scholarship. He has done many CBC radio broadcasts with the Calgary Philharmonic, the Canadian Chambers Ensemble, and Ensemble 4 , (a two piano, two percussion quartet).

Mr. Schuett has conducted workshops in orchestral percussion for the Calgary Board of Education and the Banff Centre. He has also led masterclasses in percussion for the Orff Society as well as the Suzuki Society. Mr. Schuett is currently a member of the Percussive Arts Society and teaches at Mount Royal College.