Woodwind, Brass and Percussion

Degrees and Studies:

Norman Stanfield holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Flute Performance and both Masters and Doctorate degrees in Ethnomusicology. He also completed certificates in the performance practices of early music flutes and recorders and the Japanese Shakuhachi flute.

Biographical Information:

Dr. Stanfield teaches and conducts research at the University of British Columbia and is Governor of the International Shakuhachi Society. His recent research has been directed towards England's vernacular music and dance, including morris dance, British brass band, and the Salvation Army timbrel brigades. His publications have appeared in the Canadian Society for Traditional Music, where he was President for several years, and the Garland Encyclopaedia of World Music. In addition, he is an avid performer of the cornet and baritone horn in a British Brass Band.
