

Peter Stoll

Woodwinds

Peter Stoll holds a Master of Music from the Indiana University and a Bachelor of Music from the University of Toronto. He was winner of the Chalmer's Fund, Ontario Arts Council, and also a prize winner of the International Clarinet Association. Mr. Stoll has studied with well-known teachers such as James Campbell, and Avrahm Galper. He has had extensive performing experience playing with the Toronto Philharmonia, the Ergo Ensemble, and the Talisker Players. Mr. Stoll has also adjudicated for numerous festivals and has led workshops including ones for Long & Mcquade's Heart of the Horn series. He has taught for the University of Toronto and currently teaches at The Royal Conservatory of Music, Mississauga Branch. Mr. Stoll is also a member of the International Clarinet Association.