

Tzvi Taub

Voice

Tzvi Taub holds an ARCT in performance as well as in teaching from The Royal Conservatory of Music. He has studied with Neil Williams at the University of Toronto and Helen Simmie of the RCM and received the American Israel Cultural Foundation award. He has performed with Rinat-Israel National Choir and is a recital artist with appearances throughout North and South America, Europe and Israel.

Mr. Taub is a member of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association and Music Teachers' National Association and has been Cantor/Music Director at several North American congregations. He is currently developing an interactive computer course on singing and continues to teach privately.